INCIDENTS

10/2/23 – 500 block Evergreen Avenue – Officers responded to the area for reports of a male going door to door and soliciting. There were also reports for the same male harassing homeowners when not donating to his organization. Officers were able to locate the individual and make contact. The subject was advised of the township ordinances pertaining to soliciting as well as the laws regarding harassment. There were no further incidents relating to the matter and the subject was sent on his way.

10/3/23 – 8200 block Limekiln Pike (Cheltenham) – Several Springfield Officers responded to assist the Cheltenham Police Department with an armed subject. Springfield Officers assisted with forming a perimeter and ensuring citizen safety while the Cheltenham Officers handled their investigation.

10/4/23 – Mermaid Lane/Pine Road – Several Officers responded to the area for reports of a male with a large knife walking in the roadway. Unfortunately, due to an extended time delay from the reports, the Officers were not able to locate anyone matching the description or displaying a weapon after canvassing the area for some time. Officer continued to check the area throughout the night for any further reports.

10/4/23 – 900 block Pleasant Avenue – Complainant came to police headquarters to report that a check that had been placed in the home mailbox for outgoing mail was stolen and the check amount was altered and then deposited. The investigation is continuing by the Detective Division.

10/5/23 – Patton Road/Cheltenham Avenue – Officers were dispatched to the area for reports of two male individuals in a construction area possibly stealing items. Responding Officers were quickly able to contact the two subjects and were able to confirm that they were contractors working on the property. Officers quickly cleared out the call without issue.

10/6/23 – Brent Road/Church Road – Officers responded to the area for reports of a disturbance on a school bus. After speaking with the bus driver, aide, and student(s) in question, the Officers were able to calm down the situation to allow for drop off procedures. The Officers were able to quickly get the bus back on its route and the incident was cleared without issue.
