Mary Holland called the meeting to order.

Mike Taylor reported that he has talked with references for all four architectural firms whom we're inviting to submit proposals, and the references have given universally positive responses.

All present shared their impressions about the presentations made by the four firms at the Commissioners' interviews on May 28. (Mary H. captured this information separately from these minutes, and will send a summary to Bob Gillies for the commissioners.) Strong consensus emerged around Daley Jalboot as the best firm for the job, whom the committee will recommend the commissioners choose.

The next step will be for the Board of Commissioners to approve township staff to begin negotiations with the chosen firm.

Staff will begin developing an RFP for the construction manager's role, assuming the board authorizes this activity.

The meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

Joy Bergey
