

©2020 CSLP

Fairy Tale Scavenger Hunt

Jack and the Beanstalk

Once upon a time, there was a boy named Jack who lived on a farm with his mother. One day, his mother asked him to take the cow to the market and sell it because it was no longer giving milk. Along the way, Jack met a man who offered him some magic beans in exchange for the cow. Jack accepted the trade and took the beans home. His mother was angry; she wanted money to buy food, not beans that she didn't believe were magic. She threw the beans out the window. The next morning, Jack discovered an enormous green beanstalk growing outside their home. It was so tall that they couldn't see the top.

Jack was a curious boy, and he climbed up the beanstalk. Above the clouds, he found a castle, where a giant lived with sacks of coins and a goose that laid golden eggs on command. Jack wanted that gold to help his mother buy food, but the giant knew someone was hiding in his castle and called "Fee Fi Fo Fum! I smell the blood of an Englishman!" Jack scurried out of his hiding place, grabbed the goose, and climbed down the beanstalk, with the giant following. When Jack reached the bottom, he chopped down the beanstalk, and the giant crashed to the ground. Jack, his mother, and the goose lived happily ever after.

Find 5 items that match these descriptions.

Take a photo of the items and send it to Miss Amy at aambler@mclinc.org. We'll put the photos on our website!

Beans

Something golden

Something to climb

Something that is made from milk

Something to dig with