4/4/25 – Police responded to a medical call for a male outside of a business on the 1000 block of Bethlehem Pike. Upon speaking with the patient, the male told police he did not have identification with him and was giving an incorrect name that came back with no returns. As the officer got back into the car to run the information again, he observed the male throwing paperwork into the trash. The officer asked for his name again, and the male asked to cancel the ambulance and walked off. The officer retrieved the paperwork and ran the name on the paperwork. This searched revealed that the male had active warrants out of Montgomery County and Bucks County. Officers found the male at another business and confirmed his identity. He was placed into custody for his active warrants.
