INCIDENTS:

6/17/25 – Police were dispatched to the Chestnut Hill Lodge on the 8800 block of Stenton Ave for the report of an employee impersonating a nurse. The employee reported that an employee was using a false name and date of birth but was recognized as someone who was terminated. The female gave different answers when asked about her identification information. Officers were able to obtain her identity and discovered that she had multiple active warrants. The female was taken into custody and charged with identity theft and other related charges.

6/19/25 – Springfield Police handled a heavy volume of calls during the storm including accidents, traffic hazards, poles/wires/trees down, and assisting the local fire departments.

6/22/25 – Police were dispatched to a 911 call for a report of smoke coming from Erdenheim Auto on the 600 block of Bethlehem Pike. Officers arrived quickly and confirmed a smoke condition at the business and assisted the multiple fire departments and fire marshals who responded.
