INCIDENTS:

9/19/2025 – Police were dispatched for a theft report at Hallmark on the 1800 block of Bethlehem Pike. A female had filled two bags with merchandise and left the store. After police had been called, she came back and started to put some items back on the shelves and left again. Officers arrived at the store and were gathering information from the manager when the female subject had walked back into the store. The manager positively identified her, and she was taken into custody for retail theft.
