INCIDENTS:

9/29/2025 – Police conducted a traffic stop around Paper Mill Rd and the Route 309 northbound ramp. During the stop, while confirming identification, it was discovered that the driver had an active warrant out of West Chester. The warrant was confirmed, and the driver was taken into custody to serve his warrant.

10/5/2025 – Police were dispatched to the 200 block of Glendalough Rd for the report of a large underage party. Upon arrival, officers observed a large group of juveniles and young adults fleeing the back yard, jumping fences into adjacent yards. Beer cans and other alcoholic containers were scattered throughout the yard. A neighbor confirmed that the homeowners were away. Multiple juveniles were transported to the hospital for injuries or intoxication and were referred to the Youth Aid Panel. Police, with assistance from the neighbor, ensured the remaining individuals had a safe ride home.
