INCIDENTS:

11/13/2025 – Police took reports for multiple vehicle break-ins. Some belongings were taken from vehicles, and some of the cars were just rummaged through.

11/16/2025 – Police were dispatched to Roesch Ave for a report of an accident and people screaming. Upon arrival, police observed a sedan with its hood up and a door open. An officer observed that the ignition was popped open and broken off, an indicator that the vehicle was stolen. One male, who admitted to driving the car was detained and told officers who else was in the vehicle. The vehicle was confirmed to be stolen, and the driver agreed that it was. Cheltenham police assisted in finding the passengers, who were also taken into custody. The three males were charged with receiving stolen property and other related charges.

11/16/2025 – Police were dispatched to a vehicle crash at Cheltenham Ave and Paper Mill Rd. Upon arrival, police observed an SUV that crashed into the rocks with the airbags deployed. Officers observed the driver laughing and playing with the airbag, and detected the odor of an alcoholic beverage as they approached. The driver showed signs of impairment, so officers performed standardized field sobriety tests. Due to the signs of impairment and results of the tests, the driver was taken into custody for suspicion of DUI.
