INCIDENTS:

10/26/2026 – Police took a report of an attempted theft of a vehicle on the 200 block of Allison Rd.

10/26/2026 – Police were dispatched to the 7600 block of Queen Street for a vehicle that was set on fire. The vehicle was tucked between buildings and was no longer on fire. Although the vehicle was severely burnt, police were able to identify it through a VIN number, and it was confirmed that it was a stolen vehicle. The case has been turned over to the Detective Bureau and the investigation is ongoing.

10/27/2026 – While on patrol, an officer was notified that a vehicle wanted in connection to a retail theft was driving through Cheltenham Township, in the direction of Springfield. The officer located the vehicle and conducted a traffic stop on Route 309. The driver had an active arrest warrant, and during investigation, a Montgomery Township Narcotics K9 came to scene. After execution of an approved search warrant, the driver was in possession of narcotics and paraphernalia. The male was taken into custody for his warrant and additional charges are pending the ongoing investigation.

10/30/2026 – While on patrol, an officer observed a vehicle swerving over the double yellow line on Paper Mill Rd. The vehicle was speeding up, then slamming on the brakes as well. The officer attempted to stop the vehicle, but it took a while for the vehicle to pull over. The driver was showing signs of impairment and admitted to drinking. He agreed to the Standardized Field Sobriety Tests and was taken into custody for suspicion of DUI.

11/1/2026 – Police were dispatched to the 900 block of Pleasant Ave for a physical altercation. After separating the two males and further investigation, it was discovered that the one male had an active arrest warrant out of Cumberland County. The male was taken into custody for his arrest warrant.

REMINDER: Lock your vehicles every night and remove anything of value.
